

North Reading Writes 2014

A NaNoWriMo Chapter

North Reading Writes 2014 is an opportunity for local writers to work together toward a common - and maybe even outrageous - goal: Writing a 50,000-word novel in 30 days during the month of November. Writers around the world will be taking the challenge... Will you be one of them?

All events will be in the Flint Memorial Library Reading Room.
