

SUMMER 2021: Required Reading List – Grade 11 & 12 (Specific Class)

All students must choose two books to read over the summer. One book must be the assigned title from your class below.

For their second book, students are encouraged to choose a book that meets one of the Other criteria below. Students may not read a book that they read for summer reading in a previous year or as part of a course at the middle or high school. This book should also be at or above the student's reading level. Parents are encouraged to participate in the selection of this book.

All students will be assessed on their summer reading in the first days of the 2020-2021 school year. Academic Decathlon students should read The Sea-Wolf by Jack London in addition to the grade-level title.

American Literature required title:

Vowell, Sarah Assassination Vacation

British Literature required title:

Shelley, Mary Frankenstein

Contemporary Dramatic Literature required title:

Williams, Tennessee The Glass Menagerie

Journalism required title:

Kolbert, Elizabeth The Sixth Extinction

Modern World Literature required title:

Hosseini, Khaled A Thousand Splendid Suns